

MARK A PORTERBETHESDA, MD

Mr. Porter joined Foster Associates, Inc. as a cost analyst in 2006. His main duties currently involve consulting for the United States Postal Service where he is responsible for the production of numerous financial performance reports. He has previously managed databases and provided statistical analysis used in natural gas-related litigation. He has extensive experience programming in Visual Basic, SAS, STATA and G7. Mr. Porter received a B.A. in economics in the spring of 2009 from the University of Maryland-College Park.